

Nyatichi Christine

Dedicated mathematics educator and researcher in Mathematics with the goal of enriching teaching methodologies and empowering young learners, especially girls, in the field of mathematics. I bring a blend of practical teaching experience and academic excellence to contribute meaningfully to the field of educational research.

Education

2012-2015

Bachelor of Science in Mathematics

Masinde Muliro University of Science & Technology

Experience

2021 to 2024 Kibabii University- Bungoma Kenya Part Time Lecturer-Applied Mathematics.

Responsibilities and Achievements:

- Deliver comprehensive lectures and tutorials in applied mathematics to undergraduate students, ensuring a thorough understanding of complex concepts.
- Assess and provide constructive feedback on student assignments, projects, and exams, contributing to their continuous learning and development.
- Collaborate with faculty members in curriculum planning and development.
- Participate in departmental meetings and workshops.

2015-2016

- Bungoma County Research Consultant Responsibilities and Achievements: Spearheaded comprehensive data collection initiatives to assess the readiness of Early Childhood Education (ECE) programs across Bungoma County.
- Collaborated closely with educational stakeholders, including school administrators and local government officials, to gather relevant data and insights.
- Produced detailed reports and presentations summarizing findings, which significantly influenced policy decisions and curriculum development in the county.

Expertise

Teaching

Data Analysis

Counselling

Reference

Nyawara Calvince

Phone: 0713282532

Email: nyawaracalo@gmail.com

Dr. Boniface Kwach

Senior Lecturer Kibabii University

Phone: +254726466801

Email: bkwach@kibu.ac.ke